Innovation Manager, expert in planning of sustainable innovation projects and consultant in business sustainability development. I'm also trainer in Sustainable Management, Green Project Management, expert in planning of vocational and in-company education paths.

Expert in Digital Marketing and communication, I'm keen on development and drafting of corporate sustainability reports.

EXPERIENCES

Sustainable Innovation Manager

Stargate Consulting & Training - Since January 2017

Sustainability Manager with experience in assessing ESG maturity and developing corporate sustainability strategies. Skilled in business model analysis, sustainability scoring, and improvement roadmap design. Proven expertise in interpreting and implementing European regulations (CSRD, ESRS, EU Taxonomy), with the ability to translate regulatory requirements into operational solutions and reporting processes. Experienced in Green Project Management and corporate training, with strong analytical skills and a results-driven approach to complex ESG projects.

The following are the main responsibilities and activities that I carry out in my role as sustainability manager.

Planning and supervision of Sustainable Innovation Projects, including training activities in Sustainable Management and Green Project Management:

- Developing and implemented ESG assessment models to measure companies' maturity, generating initial sustainability scores and identifying areas for improvement.
Supported companies in interpreting and applying European regulations (CSRD, ESRS, EU Taxonomy), translating compliance requirements into reporting and operational plans.
- Managing ESG data collection, classification, and validation, identifying compliance risks and providing practical solutions.
- Coordinating Green Project Management initiatives, integrating ESG objectives into corporate processes and delivering dedicated training programs.
- Collaborating with internal teams (finance, compliance, operations) and external stakeholders, contributing to the development of sustainability reports aligned with GRI and ESRS standards.
- Developing and managing of vocational education and in-business training projects in R&D, funded by Italian government.
